

A cream of tartar baking powder.—
Highest of all in leavening strength.—
Largest U. S. Government Food Report.

BRIEF NOTES.

The Township Committee meets Monday night.

Mr. Walter S. Freeman has gone on a business trip to Boston, Mass.

Four and one-half inches thick was the ice on Oakes pond on Monday.

H. H. Beddulph the coal dealer has posted very handsome calendars for 1892.

The regular monthly meeting of Essex

Trust Company was held on Tuesday night.

Henry Ave was injured by the explosion of a gun in Davey's woods last Saturday.

The Young Men's Catholic Union will have a general meeting in Union Hall on Wednesday, January 27th.

The Second Ward Republic Club will vote at their number for the Town-

Committee at the spring election.

The Bloomfield Building and Loan Association will meet for organization on Tuesday night.

Mr. William V. Hughes expects to have this town shortly to take up his residence in Elgin, Ill.

The latest from Ticker agent William

Lieder was that he is enjoying himself in Washington, D. C.

Inset Pieron of Arlington Avenue,

was here spending several weeks in Europe, returned last week.

15 shares were subscribed for at the going of a new series of stock of the

Bloomfield Building and Loan Association,

January 5th.

The Legislature will be petitioned to add County Board of Freeholders. South

way counties consider them too expensive.

Leaders of THE CITIZEN who wish to see my type writing done or blue prints

will do well by calling on Mr. C.

Elkay, box 87, Bloomfield.

Irreversible crystal place is the elegant showroom of Dr. F. American Gas Glass at 10 Murray street, New York. Rich

for your pocket.

John Poeker, the well known uphol-sterer of Mountclair, has the contract for making the couch and bathtub for Mr.

William Hartman.

Mr. Arthur Spragg's new brick building a two-story is receiving the finishing touches. It is a decided improvement in the appearance of the Avenue.

Mr. Quander, a student at the Seminary, gave a very interesting account of the Russells at the missionary meeting of the German Presbyterian Church last

Friday evening.

The latest reports from the bedside of the esteemed townsmen, Mr. N. H.

did report him as recovering, which will be highly gratifying to his wide circle of friends.

HOES, MEN'S WEAR, CLOAKS all retail at Newark Bee Hive.

The board of school trustees have considerable difficulty with the heater in the Broadway school. The Company has put it in have agreed to make its work satisfactory.

The installation of officers of the

New Men's Catholic Union took place in the week, lack of space prevents a more detailed account of the proceedings. It will appear next week.

The election of Directors for the assurance among the financial institutions of Newark, took place during the week.

The names of prominent citizens of this

we are noted among them.

It is surprising what a large amount of gasoline is consumed in this town in primary machines. Several of our prominent residences are supplied with the gasoline machine.

It is a matter of regret that more of our people did not hear Mr. Henry H.

Levy's instructive lecture last week. It we relate with historical facts and ways have delighted every student of history.

However you need either plain, fancy

stationery note paper, envelopes or stationery call at Ans Brothers,

Glenswood Avenue. They keep on all a large variety of the best makes and prices.

The practical joker who arranged for the dispatches of congratulation from

President Harrison, Secretary Blaine,

Mr. Cleveland and Senator David B.

It will be delivered at the Fairview han-

gards on Monday night, has had his little all to himself.

Mr. Nathan Smith the well known

Newark musician expresses himself as highly gratified with the acquaintance with the people of this town

through his connection with the madrigalists. He is pleased with the interest manifested in musical matters by the people.

Ans Brothers, new dealers and stations of 276 Glenwood Avenue, get their daily papers in Bloomfield extra and are able to serve customers to desire to take the early trains. It is want your newspaper early, promptly and regularly you cannot do better than leave your order with them.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bloomfield National Bank was on Tuesday and the following board

directors elected:

Thomas Oakes, G. Lee Stout, Halsey M.

West, James C. Beach, William A.

Ward, E. G. Ward, H. E. Benson,

Richards, J. P. Schaff, Robert

Gold, Henry P. Dodd, William Colfax,

Richards, Polhemus Lyon, Lew-

Dodd.

The Essex County Building and Loan Association will meet next Tuesday evening in Dodd's Hall. There will be money to loan.

William Hill received a gift of a hand some bouquet from the members of Eureka Lodge Knights of Pythias on Tuesday night.

A revolving advertising sign has been placed in front of John N. Delhagen's store on Broad Street and attracts a great deal of attention.

BOY'S CLOTHING, MISSES WEAR all reduced. Newark Bee Hive Sale ends today.

John L. Webb of Myrtle street, district deputy organizer of the Progressive Benefit Order for the city of New York, has moved with his family back to Lawrence, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sheldon celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage at their handsome new residence on Belleville Avenue on Tuesday evening. A large number of friends were present.

Excelior Hose Company No. 3 will have a special meeting to-night, Saturday, to elect a foreman in place of Wm. Rawson who has been appointed second assistant chief of the Bloomfield fire department.

Ratty and content is a home with "The Rochester," a lamp with the light of the morning. Call on Rochester Lamp Co., 4 Park Place, N. Y.

A Patent Horseshoe.

A patent covers a horseshoe which possesses many advantages. On its under surface is stamped a pattern which gives a number of points for the securing of a better grip on the pavement, and this, where wooden pavements are used, is an important consideration. The shoe is about half the weight of an ordinary shoe, being two and a half pounds the set of four; it takes less time and less money to fix, has four nail holes, as against one nail in the others.

JACKETS, in the best styles and finish which are being sold at $8 and $10, now

On the centre counter will be placed several fine lines of DRESS GOODS which have heretofore sold at from 44

to 50 cents per yard. They will be 39

CENTS, and another line which sold

from 76 cents to $1 per yard will be 69 CENTS.

FANCY EVENING SILKS are marked at 98 CENTS and $1.13 PER YARD, and Plain INDIA SILKS heretofore 65 cents are 50 CENTS PER YARD.

A few Robe DRESS PATTERNS remain and these we offer at about ONE THIRD THEIR VALUE.

It is well to remember that now is the time to pick up bargains—

now just as much as during the annual clearing-out sale. Bargains in bric-a-brac, in aprons, in perfumery, in odds and ends.

But, after all, that isn't what we are here for. We have been here for many years and hope to be for many more, for the purpose of supplying you with standard and reliable dry goods, dress goods, cloaks, coats and the things pertaining to them in the trimming line. As for our prices, we only ask you to look and compare for yourself.

W. V. S. & CO. HEATH & DRAKE.

We propose to carry no goods from one season to another; and, to accomplish our object, a

GRAND REDUCTION

in prices has been made in nearly every department.

In the Cloak Department NEW-

MARKETS and LONG GARMENTS

which were $20 last week have been re-marked at $10 EACH, and propionate reductions have been made in the others.

JACKETS, in the best styles and finish which are being sold at $8 and $10, now

On the centre counter will be placed

several fine lines of DRESS GOODS

which have heretofore sold at from 44

to 50 cents per yard. They will be 39

CENTS, and another line which sold